THE NORTHSTAR CHRONICLE

Written by students, for students

To Start Your Day Off Right...

"So far 2020 is like looking both ways before crossing the street and then getting hit by an airplane."

Hey Chronicle readers! I have decided to do a monthly program of bible verses! Each month will be a new link for what you'll read and or memorize that week/month. I'm going to try it out this month and see how many people participate. This month will be on Romans. I will add the memory verse on the front page. Let's see how many of you can remember it by the end of the month!

Romans 8:38-39

"For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

Jacobs Jokes

What's the best thing about Switzerland?

I don't know but the flag is a big plus

Why do we tell actors to break a leg?

Because every play has a cast.

I waited all night trying to figure out why I couldn't see the sun.

Then it dawned on me.

What do you call an alligator in a vest?

An investigator.

What do you call a boomerang that won't come back?

A stick.

I asked my cat what two minus two was.

He said nothing.

Yesterday I saw a man accidentally spill a
Scrabble set on the road.

I asked him, "What's the word on the street?"

Why don't scientists trust atoms?

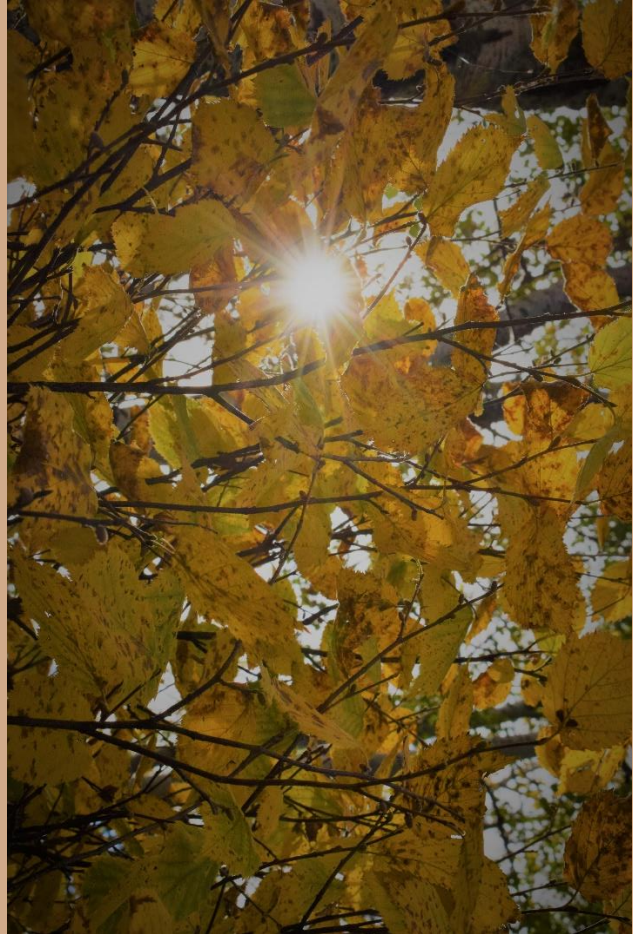

Because they make up everything.

What sits at the bottom of the sea and twitches?

A nervous wreck.

What rhymes with orange?

No, it doesn't.

Eden Lake Ski Resort

~Benjamin Widish

Lake Eden, north-west of Edmonton, was originally named by the Lake Eden Fur Farm that operated a farm on the lands close to the Lake until 1970 when it sold

The business minded Zeiter brothers had a dream of developing a year-round summer and winter resort, and boy, did they build one.

They built summer cabins and rented them out to families from looking for a lake getaway.

They even piled 28,000 cubic meters of dirt on the hill to raise the vertical descent from 25 meters to 62 meters.

However, the Zeiter brothers had their misfortunes, and Lake Eden, and their other assets were placed in receivership.

In 1983 the Lake Eden property was sold.

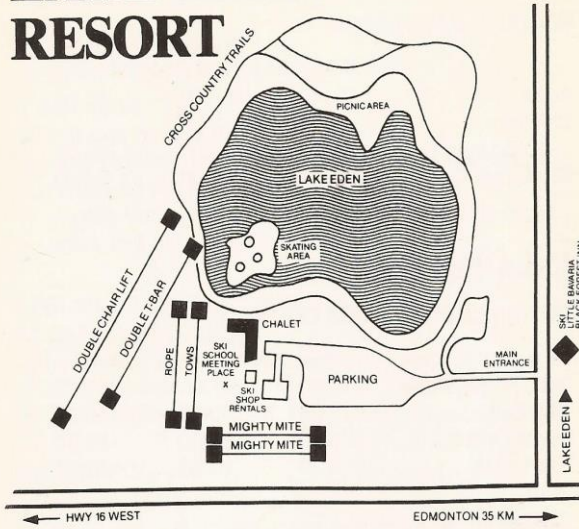

The ski area continued to operate until the mid 1990s, when rising costs and bad winters forced the property to close once and for all.

The lodge, which had been a dangerous hazard, was torched in December 2012.

All that remains of the once prominent Eden Lake resort are a chairlift, T-bars, a few dilapidated cabins, and a few ski runs.

The hill can also be seen from the Trans Canada highway.

Silver Moon Academy Book 1: The Curse on Silver Moon
Chapter 1 –NOT PUBLISHED–

The air was fresh and crisp, a soft and chilly wind wove itself through the streets of Jamaa, reminding everyone that it was autumn. The trees were painted with deep crimson and amber leaves. The ground was already covered with splashes of auburn and buttery yellow.

It was almost September. To be precise, there were only four days until it was September first. Because of this, students from all over Jamaa were preparing for school by reviewing some of last year's work, picking their courses, and by gathering new school supplies.

Jamaa's Mall was especially busy. Students were shopping for their stationary items, new clothes, backpacks, and lunch kits... everything that was needed for a new school year.

I was shopping with my two of my three best friends- Amy and Denaé in our favorite journalist store called The Writer's Nook. My other friend was in another country helping his family. All three of us were almost complete opposites, but we were still besties for life and always stuck together like two peas in a pod. Err... three peas in a pod. Amy, the short lilac fox, was the fashionista. She loved checking out the fashion magazines every week when they first came out. She also thoroughly enjoyed designing her own dresses at home and making my other friend Denaé and I try them on.

Denaé was the calm and quiet one. She was a gold and white cougar, who preferred botany and baking. Everything she made was absolutely delicious. Denaé is an amazing cook.

Did You Know?!

The original name for the search engine Google was “Backrub”. It was renamed Google after the googolplex, which is the number one followed by 100 zeros.

Elephants can't jump!

Eagerly, we walked down the halls of the shopping centre, gushing at the magnificent displays until we finally reached the chic and superlative Kazu. The three of us looked through the racks and racks of shimmering fabric, glimmering cloth, silk, satin, and cotton before each picking out a couple of skirts, shirts, and gowns.

I found a glittery pink and pearl white gown that had lace around the neck and crisscross sparkle patterns across the skirt part. It was absolutely stunning. I also found a few other items that I adored and needed to buy.

After about an hour and a half of browsing, selecting, and trying our clothes on, we made our decisions and bought our outfits.

Amy, Denaé and I started to walk back through the mall and out into the fresh air. We walked down the cool, sunny street to the little apartment where we were staying.

In our little room, we gathered all our school stuff and organized it, packing it into our bags and setting them in the front closet.

While Denaé cooked up some dinner and Amy took photos of the dresses, I looked at the school's website on my laptop where I discovered that it was the school's very first year!

While I was on the website, I looked at the beautiful pictures of the school's dorms and the list of the teachers, classes, and maps of the academy.

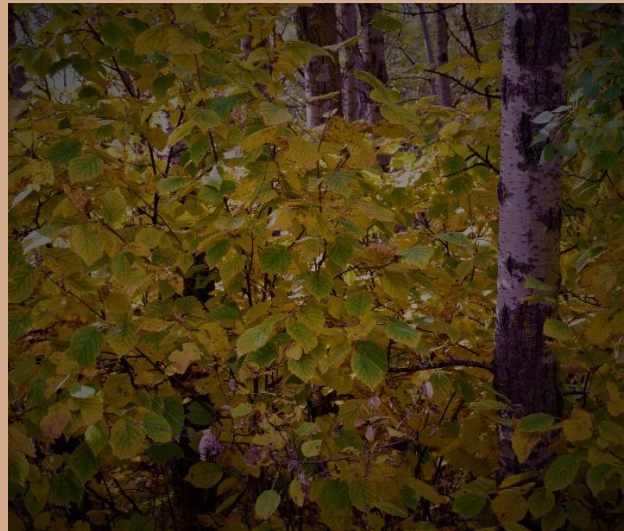

“Only a few more days until our first class!” I excitedly said after a little while, closing my laptop and looking at my friends with a wide grin. I couldn't wait!

—OoBoo—

Thank you so much for reading my story!
This was only the first chapter of the book, so if you are interested in the full version (I took out a lot of detail and description to make it fit better in the chronicle) and if you want to read more Silver Moon Academy adventures, email me at ndbooks@kcnw.ca!* Just tell me what chapter you need!

Happy reading!

*I am extremely busy with school, articles for an Animal Jam (www.animaljam.com) newspaper and with Chronicle stories. This may mean there will be a delay in getting you the next part of the story. I am sorry and will try my best to get it to you guys as soon as I can! And don't forget! If you want to play the game this book is based off of, go to AnimalJam.com! Hope to see you there! (My username is Nop62)
